Ginayra

Biography

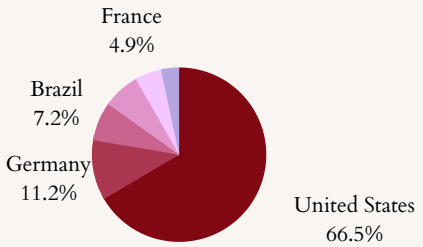

Ginayra is a Latin-American, singer-songwriter from the DMV area. As a child of Salvadoran parents, she uses her bilingual talents to create a soundscape meant for a diverse audience. Her parents met in a band as teens, and their love of music exposed Ginayra to the world of melodies and rhythms at a young age. Growing up, her musical pallet was shaped by Latin music, Hip-Hop, R&B/Soul, Pop, and Rock. Unique production by J.Medina grants her an outlet to express her feelings and organize her thoughts in a manner that is as true and unapologetic as the emotions themselves.
